ANTARCTIC EXPLORER REACHES NEW ORLEANS

Sir Ernest Shackleton Will Rescue Companions Then Enter War

New Orleans, La., Nov. 3.—Captain Sir Ernest Shackleton, Antarctic explorer, arrived here today at the first English speaking section he has touched since he left civilization two years ago and set out in a futile effort to cross the South Polar continent and then south pole.

This poster, appearing on billboards in many cities of the United States, expresses graphically the appeal that Woodrow Wilson's administration has made to the working men of America. What stronger appeal can there be than the service Woodrow Wilson has performed that saves this man's family from the brutalities of militarism and enables him to be working instead of fighting in a needless war that would have saved no lives and that would have accomplished nothing for the honor of the United States or for the welfare of humanity?

By J. P. Yoder. (United Press staff correspondent.)

Rain in Argentine Cuts Wheat Prices

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Bearish influence pressed all grain lower on the exchange today after an opening at figures close to those of yesterday's close. Long wheat was on tap from the start and buying power was limited. Rain in Argentine and purchases by northwest millers of Canadian wheat at lower prices than domestic grain were depressing factors. December wheat, which opened unchanged today from yesterday's close was down 5-8 at $1.85 3-8, May down 1/4 at $1.86 1-8 and July down 1/4 at $1.49 3-4.

Evening Post Comes Out Editorially for Wilson's Re-election

New York, Nov. 3.—The Evening Post, which was the most conspicuous Hughes organ prior to the Chicago convention, today declared for Wilson in the following editorial:

In common with the great body of independents the Evening Post entered this campaign with a mind open to conviction. We could not pretend to overlook the serious objections to President Wilson. From Mr. Hughes we hoped for an exhilarating campaign with far reaching and conservative policies, discussed in an appealing manner and on a high level. He has sorely disappointed us.

The editorial says this indicates an overwhelming endorsement by farmers of the policies of President Wilson.

Wall Street is Bled

New York, Nov. 3.—Presidential betting broke all records here today, according to reports in the financial districts. A quarter of a million dollars was the estimate of the day's bets, placed in most instances at odds of 30 to 7 on Hughes.

WET OR DRY DO YOU KNOW HOW TO VOTE?

Have you read your election pamphlet and studied your ballot carefully enough that you are absolutely certain which measure is THE BREWERS BILL and which is THE PROHIBITORY LAW?

This Measure Is Bred from Start to Finish. Defeat It By Voting 315 X NO

The argument of the Breweries in favor of their measure, and practically the only one which they are presenting, is that it will keep Oregon money at home. DON'T BE MIS-LEAD BY THIS CATCH PHRASE. ALL OREGONIANS ARE IN FAVOR OF KEEPING OREGON MONEY AT HOME.

WET OR DRY DO YOU KNOW HOW TO VOTE?

Do not be deceived by the wording of the first four lines of THE BREWERS BILL. It has been purposely drafted so as to mislead you into believing that it is the PROHIBITORY MEASURE which is being voted upon this year. Read the BREWERS BILL for yourself and you will discover its viciousness.

WET OR DRY DO YOU KNOW HOW TO VOTE?

It would permit the opening of saloons and bottle houses, under the guise of Brewers Agencies which would be, virtually, saloons. It would permit the sale of intoxicating liquors where the individual requested them for medical purposes, even though the purchaser presented no Doctor's prescription. It would permit the sale of intoxicating liquors upon physicians prescriptions without regard to whether the individual requested such liquor for such medical purposes or not.

WET OR DRY DO YOU KNOW HOW TO VOTE?

If you would keep Oregon money at home, vote for the measure which will prohibit importation of liquor into the State. We would then have ABSOLUTE PROHIBITION, AS IT COULD NEITHER BE MANUFACTURED OR SOLD WITHIN THE STATE, OR IMPORTED INTO THE STATE FOR BEVERAGE PURPOSES.

WET OR DRY DO YOU KNOW HOW TO VOTE?

For the sake of your homes and your families, for the best interest of the State of Oregon and its people, VOTE 316 X YES MARION COUNTY DRY COMMITTEE. William H. Trindle, Chairman.
